Ping Que’s Gold Mine at Union Reefs
Chinese Labourer, Northern Territory, Early Twentieth Century
Chinese Dam

Chinese Howley Gold Mine
The Union Mine, 1879

Tamed Buffaloes, Darwin
Pine Creek Chinatown, Barclay (H.V.) Expedition 1911 (National Library of Australia)
Chinese Woodcutter
Remains of Chinese Gardener’s Hut, Pine Creek Chinatown
Chinese Oven, near Pine Creek

Visitors Inspecting the Remains of Pine Creek’s Chinatown, 1983
Chinese Dragon
Darwin Chinatown
Chinese Residence, Pine Creek

Darwin Chinatown
George Lim's Store, Katherine
Chung Wah Temple, Darwin (before Cyclone Tracy)

At the Opening of the Pine Creek Repeater Station Museum, 1983. Left to Right: Jimmy Ah Toy, Lily Ah Toy, Norma Fong Lim, Alec Fong Lim, Dr My-Van Tran
Evacuees, 1942
Lily Ah Toy, Pine Creek and Bakery (L Ah Toy)
Dragon, Bouganvillea Festival, 1979 (Chung Wah Society, Willie Kee Collection)

Chinese Float, Bouganvillea Festival, 1979 (Chung Wah Society, Willie Kee Collection)
Chung Wah Society Entry, Bougainvillea Festival, 1995 (Sue Harlow, Museum and Art Gallery of the Northern Territory)
Interior, Chung Wah Temple, Darwin, 1990s

Chung Wah Temple, Darwin, 1990s
Lions and Players at Chinese New Year Celebrations (Chung Wah Society)
Planting of Bodhi Tree by Bill Wong, 1976 (ANL)
Memorial to Chinese at Creswick

CRESWICK CHINESE SETTLEMENT SITE

BETWEEN 1850 AND 1900, UP TO 2000
CHINESE MEN FROM THIS SETTLEMENT,
AND BUSH CAMPS SOUTH OF CRESWICK,
HELPED CHANGE FOREVER THE LANDSCAPE
OF THE DISTRICT.

UNVEILED ON 7.11.1998 BY
WELLINGTON LEE OBE OAM RFD JP
GREAT GRANDSON OF CRESWICK BUSINESSMAN
LEE HANG GONG.

Lee Hang Gong
(Hepburn Advocate 18 11 1998)
Lee Hang Gong’s wife Sarah, with four of her children. From left, Thomas, Henry, Elizabeth and Herbert. (Hepburn Advocate 18 11 1998)